

SOS Pays C&G A Visit

Ingersoll Rand Sales Engineer Tirus Kamau shows the interior of a portable compressor to SOS technical students.

Thirty one students from SOS technical training institution made their first industrial visit to Car and General headquarters in Nairobi to learn about the company's products and workshop operations. This is in line with the company's policy to work closely with institutions offering technical and engineering courses.

